

VISAS

Before traveling to Spain, we recommend that you contact the Spanish Embassy or Consulate in your country to check whether you need a student visa.

Please note that requirements may vary depending on your nationality, so it's always best to confirm with the appropriate authorities to avoid any issues.

LEGAL ADVICE

The school does not process visas or offer legal advice.

However, we can recommend the independent law firm Olguín Abogados (info@olguinabogados.com). You can contact them directly for any questions about the visa process in Spain.

CONDITIONS FOR ENROLLING

1. Full payment of the course and any additional contracted services.
2. Indicate the consulate where your visa will be processed.
3. In case of visa refusal, we will refund the amount paid minus a €400 administration fee (other services will be assessed separately).
4. An official copy of the visa resolution (approved or denied) must be provided.
